FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TAYLOR CORPORATION AWARDED MULTI-YEAR AGREEMENT WITH OFFICE DEPOT FOR WEB-TO-PRINT TECHNOLOGY AND CUSTOM PRINTED PRODUCTS

North Mankato, MN – September 16, 2011 – Taylor Corporation today announced that it has been awarded a multi-year agreement with Office Depot (NYSE: ODP), a leading global provider of office supplies and services, for web-to-print technology and custom printed products.

Under the terms of the agreement, Taylor Corporation will provide a broad array of products and services, including fulfillment of custom printed products; document management and delivery technology; a multi-channel e-ordering platform; and a print sourcing program to support Office Depot associates in meeting customer demand.

"We continue to enjoy a valuable long-term relationship with Taylor Corporation," said Kristin Micalizio, Vice President of Office Depot's Copy & Print Depot. "By renewing and expanding our relationship with Taylor, Office Depot will take advantage of an even broader range of Taylor's capabilities that will allow us to better serve our customers."

"Coming off 2010 when we were proud to receive Office Depot's Copy & Print Vendor of the Year award, we are excited to have earned Office Depot's continuing trust," said Todd Alexander, Taylor's Chief Sales Officer. "Taylor's market-leading strength as a reseller partner is reflected by the expanded scope of this agreement, which will see Office Depot benefit from our web-to-print expertise, product manufacturing, fulfillment, and marketing to a multitude of print markets. This unmatched combination of capabilities helps our channel partners enjoy a relationship with their print customers wherever and whenever they choose to order their printed products."
